

About Central City Concern

Central City Concern helps those struggling with life's biggest problems to end or avoid homelessness and build healthy, housed, resilient and engaged lives.

Our vision is a future in which nobody in our community has to experience the pain and harm of homelessness.

Strategy, Focus & 10-Year Goal:

Central City Concern is focused on helping those who are struggling with complex individual and structural factors, and are either already homeless or at a high risk of experiencing homelessness. Last year, this applied to more than 32,000 of our Portland neighbors.

- Our strategy is to implement integrated, culturally responsive, evidence- and population-based supports that achieve lasting and impactful change in the lives of those we serve.
- Our 10-year goal is to help 60,000 of our neighbors who are struggling with life's biggest challenges to end or avoid homelessness and build healthy, housed, resilient and engaged lives.

About Blackburn Center

Blackburn Center provides Central City Concern's (CCC) signature housing, health care and employment services, all under the same roof.

Programs offered at Blackburn Center feature an integrated, person-centered and team-based model of care that has evolved over 40 years in response to the needs of a diverse homeless population. The health care clinic delivers high-quality, evidence-based care, with an emphasis on addiction recovery, mental health services and primary care.

Through comprehensive case management, safe and supportive housing and employment assistance, Blackburn Center provides our city's vulnerable populations with the support they need to stabilize and rebuild their lives.
